Harrods and Associates

RE : Job advertisement – LinkedIn Fernando Páez López

Dear Mr. Peter Smith:

I am writing to you in response to your job posting on LinkedIn Harrods and Associates, on May 4th 2022, for the position of Communications Director.

First of all, I am very attracted to that job and I believe that my experience in that area, endorses me as a suitable candidate to join your team in the offered position.

In addition, over the last few years, I have participated in the performance of internal and external communication campaigns, for several companies in the sector. I have also worked in a law and tax consultancy, bringing fresh and innovative ideas in the projects I have been involved in and co-directed. The proof of the success are all the awards that several of these projects have received.

Moreover, I am very enthusiastic and creative, I love challenges and learning new things. I also have a lot of patience, very good ideas, and stress-resistance, which are fantastic for the work in group and management.

Furthermore, please find enclosed herewith my C.V., as well as my academic certificates and references. If you need any further information, you can contact me at my phone 671 875 956 or by E-Mail ferfis6@hotmail.com

I would thank you in advance for taking my application into consideration and I would be pleased to have an interview opportunity. I'm looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours faithfully,

Fernando Páez López
